

DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY

The Kővágóörs Alkotótábor Association pays special attention to the protection of personal data of customers visiting its website. If you provide personal data through our website or by using one of the e-mail addresses listed there, you consent to the Association recording and processing them in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

According to the provisions of Act CXII of 2011 on the Right to Informational Self-Determination and Freedom of Information (hereinafter: the "Freedom of Information Act"), personal data is defined as "data that can be associated with the data subject, in particular the name, the identification mark and one or more physical, physiological, mental, economic, cultural or social identities of the data subject, and the conclusions that can be drawn from the data concerning the data subject".

Please note that personal data retains this quality during the processing for as long as it can be linked to the data subject or for as long as this link can be re-established.

At your request, our Association will always provide you with information about the personal data it processes, the processing of your data and you may at any time request the rectification of your personal data or, subject to legal exceptions, the erasure of your data. We may refuse to provide you with information about your personal data only if the law allows it in the cases provided for by law.

Please note that you can access most of the pages and features of our website without providing any personal information about yourself. However, there are some services on our website that require you to register or identify yourself in order to use them. In these cases, the information you provide will be treated in strict confidence by our Association and will not be made available to unauthorised third parties.

In order to achieve the above objectives, our Association has developed rules of procedure to enforce the requirements set out in the legislation.

After reading our information, we hope you enjoy browsing our website!

With Regards,

Kővágóörs Creative Camp Association
